The John W. Black Community Center
1551 North Hwy 393 La Grange, KY 40031.

SHOW PROGRAM: Non-members may advertise in the National Show Program as long as the IDHSNA Advertising Guidelines are followed.

ADVERTISING: The following guidelines apply to advertising in any IDHSNA publication, website, regional website, regional newsletter, promotional booth, DVD/Video or other society funded/organized advertising including articles about the breed in outside publications.

- The IDHSNA reserves the right to refuse any advertisement that may include material it deems inappropriate.
- The IDHSNA assumes no responsibility for the truth, accuracy or validity of any advertisement or contribution published. Statements, opinions and points of view expressed by contributors and advertisers are not necessarily those of the IDHSNA. The IDHSNA reserves the right to deny placing advertising or contributions that are deemed damaging or are contrary to the goals of the Society. The IDHSNA assumes no liability for errors in advertisements and contributions published. Remedy for any such error is limited to the submission of a statement of correction in the official publication of the IDHSNA.
- The IDHSNA will accept sale advertisements for ID, RID, IDSH, and RIDSH horses that:
  1. are registered with the IDHSNA in one of their studbooks, or
  2. have at least one parent registered as RID or RIDSH in one of the IDHSNA studbooks, or
  3. are in foal to a stallion registered as RID or RIDSH in one of the IDHSNA studbooks.
- The IDHSNA will not accept ANY type of advertisement for any offspring sired by an unapproved stallion unless that offspring is recorded in an IDHSNA studbook based on the dam's pedigree.
- The IDHSNA will not accept advertisements for stallions 'at stud' that are not yet inspected and approved as RID or RIDSH.
- Any horse being advertised within official society publications or in society funded advertising, must be listed under its name recorded with the IDHSNA. (10.27.04)

- Any member submitting a photograph taken by a professional photographer must have permission from the photographer to use the photo on the internet or in publications.
- When using photographs, credit should be given whenever possible. Members can be credited and professional photographers should have their credit hyperlinked to their site/e-mail.
- Horses shown in photos used by the IDHSNA for advertising the society or the breed should fall within these suggested guidelines:
  1. be registered with the IDHSNA in one of their studbooks, or
  2. be foals under 1 year of age where at least one parent is registered as RID or RIDSH in one of the IDHSNA studbooks, or
  3. be registered with the IHB, IDHS, IDHSCAN or IDHSGB or have provable RID blood.
  4. Photos of horses that have failed inspection and are not approved may not be used.

RULES AND DEFINITIONS

The 2012 Annual Show Executive Committee reserves the right to interpret all questions and conditions in regard to, or arising out of, or incident to, the show, without claims for damages or recourse of any kind. Any question not covered in these rules and regulations shall be decided by the 2012 Annual Show Executive Committee, with their decision to be final. This includes the right to cancel, combine, split and/or add classes or divisions depending on entries.

All competitor horses must be registered with the IDHSNA except for those horses competing ONLY in the Future Event Horse (FEH) Series Classes which will run under the United States Eventing Association rules and regulations. All owners of horses competing must be members in good standing of the IDHSNA. Horses competing only in the USEA FEH Series do not need to be registered with the IDHSNA.

All horses must have a current Coggins, with the exception of horses under the age of twelve months are to use their dams Coggins. Horses over the age of twelve months must have their own current Coggins. All out of state horses must have a valid Health Certificate dated within 30 days of the start of the show. All horses being ridden must be at least three years old, all horses being ridden over fences must be at least four years old.

FEH Series classes are held in accordance with USEA FEH Rules, which can be found on the USEA website. In these classes horses are shown one at a time and on the triangle. Please note that these classes are for horses between the ages of one- and three-years old. Yearlings may be shown in either a halter or a bridle; two- and three-year olds must be shown in a bridle, with either reins or a New Market shank. Handlers may request to use an assistant with a whip if they feel it is needed. Horses entered in the USEA FEH Series classes must use the USEA Entry Form and be registered with the USEA. Horses entered in the USEA FEH Series do not have to be registered with the IDHSNA.

Breed In-Hand classes are to be held in typical IDHS fashion. Horses will be walked clock-wise around the ring. Each horse in the ring must have a handler at all times. Handlers are not to block the Judges view of the horse. Horses are to be turned to their right. Handlers can use an Irish Show Cane or dressage whip. The Ring Steward will assist the Judges in announcing to the handlers what they are to do.

Competitors wishing to provide a demonstration in the Dressage Freestyle Test of Choice must note which test they will be performing on their Entry Form and riders must present music on a good quality CD disk at least two hours prior to their scheduled demonstration time.

Dressage Prospect classes are held in accordance with USDF Rules, which can be found on the USDF website. In these classes horses are shown one at a time and on the triangle. Please note that these classes are for horses between the ages of zero- and three-years old. Foals must be shown in a halter and may be accompanied by their dam (both animals require a handler at all times); yearlings may be shown in either a halter or a bridle; two- and three-year olds must be shown in a bridle, with either reins or a New Market shank. Handlers may request to use an assistant with a whip if they feel it is needed.

Hunter classes are judged in accordance with USEF rules. In case of a tie, the horses with the most points over fences, will be awarded the higher placing. Hunter Pairs classes to be judged on similarity of horses/riders and quality of performance as a hunter pair. Jumper classes are judged in accordance with USEF rules. The Jumper classes, unless otherwise noted, will be run in accordance with USEF rules in Table II, Sec. 2(b), which means that the jump off occurs immediately following the course without leaving the ring.

For the purposes of this show, an AMATEUR is one, who does not train horses under saddle or in harness for profit, or does not teach riding lessons or accept remuneration for showing horses in-hand, under saddle or in harness. One who trains horses in-hand only as part of a breeding operation is not disqualified as an amateur. In cases of dispute of amateur status, the 2012 Annual Show Executive Committee will make the final decision.

ATTIRE: Below are the recommendations for appropriate attire in each discipline. Note that this is left up to the judgment of the individual and in all instances the 2012 Annual Show Executive Committee would recommend a neat and tidy appearance.

Dressage – riders to dress in a black or navy jacket, stock, white shirt, cream or white breeches with black boots. Handlers in the Dressage Prospect classes typically wear a polo style shirt with khaki type pants/slacks and either Jodhpur boots or tennis shoes.

Hunters - riders to dress in a riding jacket, shirt, appropriate choker, tie or stock, breeches, and boots.

In-Hand - handlers and assistants to wear appropriate attire for showing horses in-hand, allowing freedom of movement and protective hand, head and
